

We are looking for...

General Project Manager

Transformation program officer

- › Define projects scope, goals and deliverables that support business goals.
- › Roll out action plans with operations / regions under our 3-year value creation plan.
- › Effectively communicate transformation project to team members in a timely and clear fashion.
- › Estimate resources and participants needed to achieve program goals.
- › Ensure project results meet requirements regarding technical quality, reliability, timing and cost backed by appropriate tools.
- › Continuously strive for improvement and recommend solutions to management enhancing user benefits.

Human resources project officer

- › Talent management regional projects (employer branding and communication, training projects at IDEMIA Institute, employer branding etc.).
- › Pay package regional projects (pay package studies and alignment programs).
- › HRIS system development projects.
- › Process project roll-out.

Information technology project officer

- › IT security regional projects.
- › IT system development projects.
- › IT process project roll-out.

Communication project officer

- › Communication regional projects.
- › Events & branding development projects.

Finance project officer

- › Regional financial controlling support.
- › Finance system deployment projects.
- › Optimization and audit projects.

Purchasing project officer

- › Regional purchasing support.
- › Purchasing process and deployment projects.

Mentoring

- › You will be assigned a ONE buddy under the same graduate career path so as to share work experiences and best practice.
- › You will be assigned with your ONE buddy a ONE mentor who will support you throughout your two-year program and will help you build a network of company contacts..

IDEMIA > Institute

IDEMIA trains its people to enhance their skills and competencies in line with individual and business priorities in:

- › Paris
- › Dubai
- › Singapore
- › Colombia
- › USA
- › Online

You will be given project management training at IDEMIA Institute.

How to apply?

Send us your resume
We welcome creativity in how the resume is formatted

Include your Motivation

Send your application to:

graduateprogram@idemia.com

Conditions: Being graduated since 2 years maximum